The object of any confidence trick, is to create a sense of doubt about the obvious.
Political Correctness is the biggest confidence trick in the history of mankind.
Also when I want to advise you that you were elected more of something was the same as saying you wanted less of something. Yes, I'm looking at you Democrats.
Also I don't want to be known as CONCITY for no reason as long as the same as saying I want LESS of the electricity that you already have. Thanks, NOW please leave.
Political Correctness is the belief that it is not safe, to say critically that I and others are inferior, 'British White/Caucasian' are under constant pressure via the Media and the solicitor, to accept this LESS OF US, is better for everyone.
Is it a Racist ? Absolutely not, I'm not a racist.
Is it a Sexist ? Absolutely not, I'm not a sexist.
Is it a Homophobic ? Absolutely not, I'm not more of "me"
How much is that ?
It is the political loss of some of our institutions, local authorities and high street chains.
So, tell that that 'Wealthy' white female who is now a minority, that she is not 'Stealing' what she makes even Women. In 2015, Nutmeg Britain Whitley' Became a minority group in London.

The words "Racist" and "Racism" Just what do these words mean ? "A RACIST is anyone who is winning an argument with a Labour Supporter/Liberal !"

I can't remember where I first saw this definition, but it seems to sum things up very nicely. We have problems because of the lack of precise definitions of what the words Racism or Racist mean. At the present time they have become a term of abuse rather than a description, rather than the tone of voice used to say them at the time. How many times have people heard a "Feel Sad" factor about something or someone without really knowing why.

Take the word "Racist" for example, it is used to describe anyone who is winning an argument with a Labour Supporter/Liberal !
Getting the question answers of complete minds about just what is meant by words and phrases that we use. Perhaps we will not ask these questions unless forced to for some reason, and then will probably accept the most 'comfortable' definitions given to him by someone else.

This is because Political Correctness has been used to place anyone who raises these questions, under suspicion of being guilty of "RACISM"

WOW !

Even Al Capone, never had any rackets that were this good !!
